Everyone's Invited . . .

Join us for a Spirit-led, fun packed LONG weekend of praise, worship, and fellowship with single adults from all over the South! Our speaker, worship leader and retreat committee are already in prayer about our time together, and God WILL honor those prayers! You don't want to miss one minute of our retreat! Shocco Springs Center's beautiful location in the heart of Talladega's National Forest offers something for EVERYONE! Swimming, hiking, tennis, pool, foosball, rocking chairs, golf carts ($15 per day, reservations required), and area attractions such as DeSoto State Park, Talladega Motor Speedway Museum, are all options!

Just remember: we need YOU to make it a success! Won't you plan now to join us and remember to BRING A FRIEND!

Note: We will include a schedule of activities and area attraction information in our confirmation letter to you.....thanks!

Featured Speaker

Rev. Randy Parmer

is an ordained minister in the Church of the Nazarene. He has served in various aspects of ministry, including Senior Pastor, co-director of Solocon South & Suncoast, and as guest speaker at retreats & conferences throughout the United States. His passion is seeing others establish & maintain a growing, fruit-producing relationship with Jesus Christ. He currently resides in Scott, GA where he serves as the Children's Pastor at Mt. Olive Church of the Nazarene. Randy comes with high credentials, but you will enjoy his down home sense of humor & free style of ministry.

Worship Leader

is originally from Tullahoma, Tennessee, and has been involved in some form of Music Ministry since age 9. He traveled and sang with four of his eight siblings until age 12 and was a member of the East Tennessee District IMPACT Team for several years before attending Trevecca Nazarene University. He was also one of the Charter members of the Christian group Evidence. He currently lives in Chattanooga, Tennessee and is the Music Director for Tullahoma First Church of the Nazarene.

Imago Dei Labor Day Retreat Work & Witness Project 2010

As an added special project this year, we will be doing a short Work & Witness project on Saturday morning of the retreat. This will be a wonderful opportunity to enjoy some great hands on activities with and for people in need in the Talladega and/or surrounding communities. There will be something for everyone ~ no matter the skill level or ability! So come ready to receive the blessings that God has in store as we reach out to those in need around us!
